The environment:

The Yzerfontein residential area is surrounded by nature reserves and Green Belts are running through the town. We ask that guests respect the environment at all times.

- Apart from a variety of small wild animals there are also snakes, such as Puffadders and Cape Cobras, during the warmer seasons and it is therefore advisable not to wander into the fynbos unattended. Should you encounter a snake, please contact the “snake catcher” on the number provided in the information book.
- At certain times of the year, such as the breeding season, ostriches could be dangerous too, rather do not approach them at any time and give them right of way – they were here first!
- Due to the fact that the West Coast is an arid environment, the local communities experience water restrictions from time to time. Please help us by using water responsibly.

Liabilities:

We hold guests responsible for any damage or loss caused to the venue by your acts or omissions, default, accident or neglect. By booking with us you agree to indemnify us and to pay us on demand an amount reasonably required to make good or to rectify such damage or loss caused by you. Normal wear and tear are excluded.

- Please report any accidents to the hosts in connection with any damage.

Indemnity:

Guests attend this venue at their own risk. Whilst every reasonable precaution has been taken to ensure the safety of our guests and their possessions on the premises, the owner, its agents, and/or its employees shall not be liable for any injury, loss, theft or damage suffered by a guest/s whilst on the premises. When booking at our establishments, the guest/s hereby indemnifies the owner of the establishment and Yzerfontein Accommodation against any claims arising from any injury, loss, theft or damage suffered by them on the premises.

Staying in the beautiful, clean Yzerfontein and being in a position to welcome guests to a peaceful and mutually respectful environment and community is our priority and this forms the basis of our risk management.
